Property Description

Nestled in the heart of the charming village of Trefriw, on the edge of the breathtaking Snowdonia National Park, this substantial six-bedroom semi-detached home offers a rare opportunity to embrace spacious family living in a truly idyllic setting. Step through the generous entrance hall and discover a trio of welcoming reception rooms, each offering flexible space for entertaining, relaxing, or working from home. To the rear, a well-proportioned kitchen provides access to the private garden—perfect for al fresco dining or soaking in the serene surroundings.

Upstairs, the accommodation is thoughtfully arranged across two upper floors. The first floor boasts three generous double bedrooms, a family bathroom, and an additional separate shower room for added convenience. Ascend to the second floor to find three further double bedrooms, including a delightful front-facing room offering sweeping views over the Conwy Valley, the river below, and towards the verdant hills of Maenan.

This characterful property benefits from partial double glazing and central heating, offering warmth and comfort throughout. Located just a short drive from the vibrant market town of Llanrwst and the ever-popular Betws-y-Coed, Trefriw itself offers a warm village atmosphere, with two friendly pubs serving food, a family-run restaurant, a quaint café, and a handy village shop. Outdoor enthusiasts will adore the nearby forestry walks and the tranquil beauty of Llyn Crafnant and Llyn Geirionydd—ideal for walking, picnicking, or simply enjoying nature at its finest.

Services

It is believed the property is connected to mains gas, electric, water and sewage services although we recommend you confirm this with your solicitor.
