

This spacious three-bedroom home has entered the market offering an impressive amount of additional living space. Situated in a highly sought-after area of Billingham, it benefits from close proximity to well-regarded schools, local amenities, and the picturesque village of Wolviston.

The ground floor features an inviting entrance hallway with contemporary panelling, a bright and airy lounge positioned at the front of the property, and a modern, generously sized kitchen complete with a breakfast bar. There is also a versatile additional room suitable for multiple uses, along with a double bedroom currently utilised on the ground floor by the vendor.

Upstairs, the property offers three well-proportioned bedrooms and a stylish modern bathroom.

Externally, the home boasts gardens to the front and rear, as well as a side driveway with access gates providing ample parking.
