DESCRIPTION

A stunning, double fronted, period home just a short walk from York's historic city walls.

Upon entering the property, you have a spacious entrance hall with wooden flooring. The hall gives access to the principal reception rooms as well as a ground floor shower room and door to the rear garden.

To the front of the property you have the first two reception rooms, currently used as a sitting room and games room each have attractive feature fireplaces, as well as large sash windows allowing in plenty of light.

To the rear you have a further reception room, currently used as a formal dining room with built in storage either side of the chimney breast. The dining room leads through to the kitchen with a range of base and wall units as well as integrated appliances and a breakfast bar, beyond the kitchen you have a further utility/boiler room.

The ground floor is completed by the fifth bedroom which could easily be used for a variety of other purposes such as home office or playroom if preferred.

To the first floor you have four double bedrooms and the family shower room which features a sink, W.C and walk in shower cubicle.

Externally the property has a walled forecourt and a driveway to the side providing much sought after off street parking this close to the city centre. To the rear you have an enclosed, private garden, largely laid to lawn with a decked seating area and patio providing the perfect place for entertaining and enjoying the summer sun.

Viewing of this property is highly recommended to truly appreciate all it has to offer and the quality of the accommodation.
