DESCRIPTION

A rare opportunity to acquire a thriving Guest house business in one of York's most sought-after areas. Located in Bootham is the Grade II listed property which boasts eleven ensuite bedrooms including, family room, twins and double rooms and one single bedroom with separate private bathroom. The property has the potential to be converted into apartments or a House of Multiple Occupancy subject to the necessary planning permission.

The business is arranged over four floors and has first floor dining room and kitchen to service the guests.

In addition, there is a private, three double bed roomed owners' apartment with open plan, lounge, dining room and kitchen and four-piece bathroom.

Outside to the rear is an enclosed courtyard with off road parking and a laundry room.

Steeped in Roman, Viking and Saxon history, York is one of the countries most visited cities, built on the River Ouse which meanders through its historic street and forms its own attraction for those who like boating and generally meshing about on the river. One of the most visited attractions is York Minster believed to date back to 637 AD. The university city has a diverse culture, with superb bars and restaurants offering a variety of superb English and international cuisines. If a day at the races is your thing, then York's racecourse offers the best in race day hospitality and entertainment.

Total area: approx. 419.3 sq. metres (4513.1 sq. feet)
