Welcome to a charming and thoughtfully designed first floor one-bedroom apartment tailored for the comfort and convenience of individuals aged 60 and above. Nestled in a peaceful and welcoming community, this residence combines functionality with a touch of elegance to provide a delightful living space for those seeking a relaxed and secure lifestyle.

Upon entering, you are greeted by a spacious hallway with ample room for additional furniture and storage. Off the hallway is an inviting living room with a well-equipped kitchen to one end, boasting modern appliances and ample storage space. Designed with accessibility in mind, countertops are at a comfortable height, and the layout is user-friendly, catering to the unique needs of the mature residents.

The double bedroom is located next to the lounge with easy access to the bathroom on the opposite side. The bathroom is designed with safety and comfort in mind, featuring non-slip flooring, handrails, and an easily accessible shower. Every detail has been considered to ensure a secure and pleasant daily routine.

This apartment also comes with the added convenience of modern technology, including emergency response systems, ensuring that residents feel secure and well-supported at all times.

Beyond the apartment walls, residents have access to communal spaces tailored to their interests and needs. These include a vibrant community lounge, laundry room and outdoor areas for gentle strolls and relaxation.

In summary, this one-bedroom apartment for the over 60s is a place where residents can enjoy their independence while being part of a supportive community, providing the perfect setting for this stage of life.
