Summary

A substantial, character-filled, 1850's detached home in the highly sought after village of Rufforth, approximately two miles West of York. Upon entering the property you have a spacious entrance hall with stairs leading to the first floor. To the front of the property you have two reception rooms, each with feature open fireplaces and large windows allowing in plenty of light. To the rear you have the fitted kitchen with a range of base and wall units as well as space and plumbing for free standing appliances, there is also room for a table and chairs. Also to the rear of the property you have a further reception room, currently used as a dining room with built in storage and an attractive original cast iron Yorkshire range. The ground floor is completed by the utility room with sink, plumbing for washing machine and a further small original cast iron range. Beyond this is the downstairs shower room with sink, W.C and walk in shower cubicle.

To the first floor you have four double bedrooms, all with original cast iron fireplaces. There is also a large family bathroom with sink, W.C and bath. Externally the property has a front garden with driveway for two cars and car port for a third car. To the rear you have a secluded, south-facing, mature garden, largely laid to lawn with patio seating area, timber sheds and brick built storage. Viewing of this property is highly recommended to truly appreciate all it has to offer!
