DESCRIPTION

A two bedroom, ground floor apartment superbly located with fabulous views over the Knavesmire.

The building is accessed via a communal entrance hall with intercom entry system. Upon entering the apartment itself you have an entrance hall giving access to all other rooms.

The kitchen features a range of base and wall units, space and plumbing for free standing white goods and an external door to the communal garden.

The bright and airy living room has a bay window allowing in plenty of natural light and providing the wonderful views of the Knavesmire.

There are two double bedrooms, one to the front and one to the rear of the property and each with built in storage. The accessible wet room completes the internal accommodation with sink, W.C and shower.

Externally the property has use of the communal garden and also benefits from an allocated parking space plus a shared shed with room for a bike.

Offered for sale with no onward chain, viewing of this property is highly recommended.
