DESCRIPTION

This beautifully renovated bay-fronted period terrace is set on one of York's most desirable streets, just a short stroll from the vibrant Bishy Road with its independent shops, cafés, and restaurants, and within easy reach of the river and historic city centre. The location offers excellent transport links, including York railway station with direct services to London, Leeds, and Edinburgh, as well as nearby bus routes and well-regarded local schools.

Inside, the property has been thoughtfully extended and refurbished, blending period charm with contemporary design across three double bedrooms. The entrance vestibule leads into a welcoming hallway and a front sitting room with a striking period fireplace and bay window. Beyond lies an open-plan lounge and a stunning dining kitchen, featuring a split-level double oven, induction hob, Belfast sink with antique-style mixer and instant hot water tap, integrated dishwasher and wine fridge with space for an American-style fridge freezer. French doors open to the rear courtyard, while a utility room with cloaks WC and plumbing for a washing machine completes the ground floor. Upstairs, the galleried landing leads to three double bedrooms, including a principal bedroom with fitted wardrobes, drawers, and vanity unit.

Externally, the home enjoys a forecourt frontage and a private rear courtyard—ideal for relaxing or entertaining. Original features such as ornate coving, fireplaces, mosaic tiled flooring, and an open range with bread oven are complemented by oak flooring, contemporary radiators, and wooden window shutters.
