DESCRIPTION

This two-bedroom semi-detached house enjoys a prime position directly overlooking The Green - a rare and appealing feature that sets it apart. The view offers a peaceful, open outlook that brings a sense of space and calm to everyday life, with greenery right outside your front door.

Acomb is a well-established area with a strong sense of community. Its mix of residential streets and green spaces makes it a popular choice for those seeking a quieter setting while still being close to the city. The Green itself is a focal point of the neighbourhood, offering a pleasant place to walk, relax, or simply enjoy the changing seasons.

Shops, schools, and pubs are all within easy walking distance, making daily routines simple and convenient. Public transport links are reliable, and road connections provide straightforward access to York city centre and beyond.

Inside, the property has been extended to create a spacious open-plan kitchen, dining, and living area. Bifold doors at the rear open onto the garden, allowing natural light to fill the space and creating a smooth flow between indoors and out. The layout supports both everyday living and entertaining, with a clean, modern finish throughout.

Outside, the rear garden offers a private space for relaxing or dining, while the front of the house enjoys uninterrupted views across The Green. This outlook adds a unique charm to the home, making it a standout option for anyone looking to settle in York.
