Joseph Terry Grove, York

£325,000

A rare opportunity to acquire a luxurious and generously proportioned two-bedroom lateral maisonette, occupying the entire first floor of a contemporary detached building within the prestigious Chocolate Works development. Impeccably presented, this exceptional home offers expansive lateral space, an abundance of natural light, and a refined, high-quality finish throughout.

Accessed via its own private front door, the property opens into an impressive 40 sqm open-plan living, dining, and kitchen area. Designed to maximise light and space, the living area is both stylish and welcoming, while the sleek kitchen boasts high-gloss cabinetry, stone worktops, a breakfast bar, and a full suite of integrated appliances including an oven, hob, dishwasher, washing machine, fridge, wine fridge, and freezer. A pair of sliding French windows lead out to a large private balcony that spans the full 7-metre width of the building - an ideal space for relaxing or entertaining.

There are two spacious double bedrooms, including a principal suite with built-in wardrobes and a second bedroom enhanced by elegant wall panelling. A luxurious four-piece bathroom completes the accommodation, featuring a separate bath and a walk-in shower. Additional benefits include gas central heating and a designated parking space to the front of the property.

Perfectly positioned within easy reach of York City Centre, the Ring Road, York Racecourse, and the vibrant Bishopthorpe Road, this outstanding home is offered for sale with no onward chain.
