DESCRIPTION

Hunters Wetherby are proud to present this four bedroom semi-detached house in the sought after location of Tadcaster!

This delightful four bedroomed period semi detached house is set a short distance from the town's facilities. This is a very historic property which was constructed in 1856, originally as the Police Station and Court room. The facilities were last used in this capacity in 1906 and since then has been converted into a private home. The property retains many original features including the original prison cell.

The ground floor briefly consists of a lounge, kitchen, dining room and downstairs w/c. The kitchen is fitted with wall and base units, extractor hood, gas and electric cooker point. The dining room has a lot of character due to this being the original prison cell which has been converted into a lovely place to enjoy time with guests. The well-proportioned lounge is full of good light due to the large window to the side of the home and features a period open fireplace.

The first floor briefly comprises of four bedrooms and a house bathroom. Bedroom one is a very well sized room. Bedroom two is also a great size and benefits from built in storage. The house bathroom consists of a double walk in shower with tiled walls, a free standing bath and built in storage.

Outside of the property to the rear is the gorgeous garden with a stone wall boundary, artificial grass and a raised decked area. The gate in the rear garden gives you access to the garage. The property also benefits from off street parking with space for two cars.

Tadcaster is a highly regarded neighbour hood on the southern fringes of the market town of Tadcaster close to an excellent choice of local schools including the highly regarded Tadcaster Grammar school. An excellent range of amenities is available in the town centre and the A64 provides excellent road links to Leeds, York and further afield.
