DESCRIPTION

Hunters Wetherby are proud to present to market this spacious two bedroom mid-terrace house which is set over three floors and is ideally located within easy reach of Tadcaster town centre and is sure to appeal to either first time buyers or investors alike.

On initial entrance of the property, you are met by the spacious lounge which is the perfect place to relax and spend time with family. This room has plenty space for recreational furniture and also benefits from a log burning stove and stone hearth which creates an eye catching focal point for the room.

Graduating through into the kitchen dining area, you are met with a range of sleek wall and base units which provide ample storage space along side a stainless steel sink unit, useful pantry area and space for washing machine. The kitchen features integral appliances such as an electric hob and electric oven.

The rear of the property provides access to a patio area with wall boundaries.

Leading up from the kitchen, you are welcomed to the first floor which comprises of the principle bedroom and house bathroom.

The principle bedroom is a good sized double room which is enhanced by a large window which floods the room with natural light.

The house bathroom is comprised of a built in bath with shower attachment, vanity unit, low level W/C and storage cupboards.

Moving up to the second floor of the property, you are met with the second bedroom. Again, this is a good sized double room with a lot of light flowing through.

Externally, the property features from another patio area which is the perfect, low maintenance, outdoor space to indulge in your morning coffee.

Located in the popular town of Tadcaster, this property offers great access to major road networks, access to an array of local amenities including medical centre, restaurants, public houses, shops, supermarket and leisure facilities. It is also in the catchment for the renowned Tadcaster Grammar School.
