DESCRIPTION

Hunters Wetherby are presenting to market this three bedroom semidetached house in the village location of Allerton Bywater. This property offers an excellent opportunity for a full renovation and modernisation throughout. While it currently requires significant updating, it provides the perfect blank canvas for those looking to create a home that reflects their own vision. With plenty of scope to add value, this property would make an ideal project for investors, developers or anyone seeking a rewarding renovation opportunity. The property is on a corner plot and is enhanced by its unique potential to be developed and extended - subject to planning permission.

Inside, the property offers a generously sized living/ dining area which is perfect for entertaining and flooded with light due to the dual aspect windows. The kitchen sits just off the main living area - this well proportioned space offers a great opportunity for modernisation and redesign. The kitchen provides access to the rear garden.

Upstairs you will find three bedrooms - two double rooms and one single room. Each of these rooms are nice and bright and the two double rooms provide plenty of space for additional recreational furniture. The house bathroom provides ample space for a bath or walk in shower cubicle as well as a wash hand basin and low level W/C.

Externally, to the rear, the property features a combination of patio and lawn. This outdoor space boasts plenty of potential to be beautifully landscaped. To the front, the property features a large lawned area as well as a private driveway for off street parking. The additional outbuildings serve as extra storage space.

Allerton Bywater is a semi-rural village in West Yorkshire, near Leeds It is known for its former coal mining history. Road links include proximity to the A1(M) and the M1, providing access to Leeds and York, while the main road through the village is the Leeds Road. A primary school serves the village, and secondary education is available at the nearby Brigshaw High School, which is part of the same learning trust.
