Situation

The property is ideally situated in a no-through road in one of Bewdley's most fashionable addresses.

Bewdley is a picturesque and very desirable riverside town with some remarkable historic period buildings. It provides an extensive range of amenities including everyday shopping facilities, a number of independent restaurants and public houses, junior and senior schools. More extensive amenities can be found in the Wyre Forest town of Kidderminster together with the cities of Worcester and Birmingham.

The property lies a short driving distance from the beautiful Wyre Forest which provides many rewarding walks together with superb biking and riding opportunities.

From its elevated position the house commands some lovely views over the surrounding valley including a very nice glimpse of St. Anne's parish church.

Kidderminster has an excellent rail link to Worcester, Birmingham and London. There is M5 motorway access via junctions 3 at Quinton, 4 at Lydiate Ash and 5 at Wychbold.

Description

This is a fabulous 1970's house with generous double glazed family accommodation. It has been extensively refurbished over the period of the last 8 years. The present Vendors have installed a stunning new dining kitchen.

The entrance hall leads to the large reception hall with oak floor.. There is a cloakroom off.

The impressive full length sitting room has an oak floor which is presently carpeted. There is an attractive Clearview wood burning stove.

The real focal feature of the house is the fantastic and substantial dining kitchen with huge central island unit and extensive range of appliances. These include a 5-ring gas hob and retractable extractor hood, Bosch and Hotpoint ovens, Siemens dishwasher, wine fridge, fridge and separate freezer. The kitchen opens directly into a double-glazed conservatory/garden room. Both rooms have under-floor heating.

The first floor provides a splendid large gallery landing with walk-in linen cupboard, air conditioning and glorious views. There are four principal bedrooms, the master with range of fitted wardrobes. The excellent en-suite shower room has a walk-in shower/wet room. The splendid large family bathroom includes a roll-top bath and substantial walk-in tiled shower cubicle. In addition there is a studio/bedroom 5.
