Situation

Old Pear Tree Cottage is situated in the heart of this very sought after east Worcestershire village. The village provides an extensive range of amenities including a primary school, a post office, garage, plant nursery with tea room, substantial village hall with playing fields, a Community-run shop and café, the Chequers pub and St John the Baptist Church.

The village has a number of fine period houses including several timber framed buildings, some of which are thatched.

Crowle is situated approximately 5 miles from both the cathedral city of Worcester and the spa town of Droitwich. With easy access to both Junctions 6 and 7 of the M5 and excellent rail links from Worcester Parkway, Shrub Hill and Foregate Street railway stations, all being approximately 10 mins away, Crowle is well placed for commuting to both London Paddington, Birmingham and the West Midlands. Worcester has an extensive range of amenities and facilities including a racecourse, theatre and county cricket ground. It also has a number of state and independent schools.

Description

This utterly charming grade II listed timber framed cottage has been in the same ownership for 36 years and offers superb family accommodation. Whilst in need of some updating and improvement, it has successfully retained some lovely period and character features including a wealth of exposed timbers.

The house is approached by a reception hall with wood block floor, timber ceiling and period entrance door. There is a cloakroom off with a charming stained glass leaded light door.

The generous drawing room has a splendid open stone and brick fireplace with oak lintel over, timbered ceiling and triple aspect with twin French doors to the rear terrace and garden. There is a recess display alcove and fitted book shelving.

Separate dining room with timbered ceiling, exposed timber wall frames and lovely outlook over the front garden.

L shaped breakfast kitchen with a range of timber fronted wall and floor cabinets, AEG propane gas hob and extractor over and adjacent BBQ cooker, two electric ovens, quarry tiled floor, sink unit, plumbing for washing machine, breakfast area with cupboard housing a Worcester oil fired boiler and separate useful pantry.

Snug/sitting room with fitted book shelving, exposed brickwork and lovely aspect over the rear gardens.

A wide feature staircase with timber handrail leads up to a fine galleried landing with oak balustrade, part vaulted ceiling with exposed wall and ceiling timbers, Oak bench seat and integral shelved cupboards.

There are four bedrooms, the small single bedroom is presently being used as a study. These bedrooms have a range of fitted furniture including wardrobes.

There are two bathrooms offering en-suite facilities to all the bedrooms.

Outside

Detached tandem garage with double timber doors, two side doors with a paved driveway fronting it. Adjoining dog pen to the rear.

Side entrance porch to the house.

Most delightful mature gardens. These are a wonderful feature of the property. To the front of Old Pear Tree Cottage is a splendid large walled garden laid principally to lawn with paths and well stocked floral and shrubbery beds. There are a few specimen trees including cherry.

Side paved area with timber gate leads to the very pretty large rear garden. This comprises an initial paved patio area leading on to a long lawn with feature well with tiled canopy, timber pergola and a variety of specimen trees including plum, apple and cherry. There are further well stocked side borders, two useful timber garden sheds and a small further lawned garden with side rockery and mature hedge.
