Situation

Coniston is situated at the end of a no through lane towards the outskirts of the popular village of Rushwick. The village is situated approximately 3 miles to the west of Worcester and lies on the edge of beautiful countryside. The village has a primary school and farm shop. The Cathedral City of Worcester has substantial amenities and facilities including two local train stations in the City together with Worcester Parkway to the south. There is excellent M5 motorway access via junction 7 at the south of Worcester.

The property is also very accessible for Malvern and the Cathedral City of Hereford.

Description

This splendid detached bungalow was built for the present owner approximately 70 years ago. It enjoys a particularly nice setting.

The bungalow provides spacious and flexible accommodation with a good range of rooms. It is approached by a central reception hall with wood block flooring, cloakroom, separate WC and store.

The excellent large main lounge has a full height stone fireplace with wood burning stove. There are sliding double glazed doors to dining room. The dining room has a twin aspect including sliding double glazed doors.

Also lying off the hall is a breakfast room with pantry store leading to a fitted kitchen with freestanding cooker with extractor over.

A small rear hall provides access to a useful utility room.

The bungalow provides three bedrooms together with a family bathroom with separate shower cubicle.

Outside

There is a detached garage with an up and over door and block paved driveway with brick walling with brick pillar.

Attractive wrap around mature gardens. These are a lovely feature of the property being laid principally to lawn with gravel and terraced areas, timber garden shed and former brick and tile pigsty with adjoining store area.

External boiler.
