Yearston Cottage
Sapey Common
Clifton Upon Teme
Worcestershire
WR6 6EU

A very appealing modernised semi-detached period cottage.

Quite exceptional views over the surrounding valley towards the Malvern Hills.

- Reception hall, cloakroom, breakfast kitchen, sitting room/dining room, three bedrooms, family bathroom.
- Carparking, lawned gardens with stunning views, enclosed paved patio.

Situation

A semi-detached period cottage situated in gorgeous unspoilt countryside on the Worcestershire / Herefordshire border.

The historic and picturesque village of Clifton upon Teme is a short driving distance away. It provides an extensive range of amenities including both a nursery and junior school, general store, two public houses and a very pretty village church. Upper Sapey has a village hall and the very well-regarded Baiting House public house.

More extensive amenities are available in the nearby market towns of Bromyard and Tenbury Wells together with the Cathedral City of Worcester.

The surrounding countryside provides breathtaking scenery and many rewarding walks and countryside opportunities.

Description

Yearston Cottage is one of pair of period farm cottages. The double-glazed accommodation has been extensively refurbished and reconfigured by the present vendors over the period of the last eight years. This has included the creation of a further bedroom on the first floor (it was formerly two bedrooms).

A stable door leads to the reception hall with slate floor and Worcester oil fired boiler. There is a cloakroom off with white suite.

The refitted breakfast kitchen has a range of wall and floor mounted cupboards, timber work surfaces, Lamona double oven with Bosch ceramic hob with extractor hood over, slimline Lamona dishwasher, slate floor, integral fridge-freezer, ladder style radiator and shallow breakfast bar. There is an area suitable for a small table and understairs cupboard.

The delightful sitting room/dining room has an Efel oil burning stove with brick arch over, oak floor and twin double-glazed doors to the gardens with amazing views.

The first floor provides three bedrooms with vaulted/tall ceilings, two are doubles.

The family bathroom has been refitted with a white suite comprising a shaped panel bath with Mira shower unit and tiled surround, wash hand basin, WC and dressing mirror.

Outside

There is carparking for two cars.

Lawned gardens together with a gravelled area to the far end. The gardens enjoy truly remarkable views. There is a sheltered side paved patio area and timber shed.
