Oak House, School Lane, Great Horkesley, Colchester, Essex, CO6 4BN

Oak House is a 3 bedroom (one en-suite) detached Victorian residence of impressive standing, occupying an attractive position nestled within open countryside and located within the highly regarded North Essex village of Great Horkesley.

Great Horkesley is a village bordered on the north by the river Stour and benefits from a shop, public house, parish church and a primary school. The village enjoys close links with West Bergholt which is about 1½ miles and offers two general stores, a chemist, pubs and a church. Whilst the village is surrounded by open countryside it is only 4 miles from the town of Colchester which provides extensive facilities, commuter rail link to London Liverpool Street station and access to the A12 trunk road which provides access for the east coast and the M25/London.

An elegant Grade II listed early Victorian residence enjoys an enviable position nestled amidst open countryside within the sought-after village of Great Horkesley. The property enjoys well balanced, versatile living accommodation arranged over two floors with three reception rooms at ground floor all enjoying a wealth of charm and character throughout including open cast iron Victorian fireplaces, intricate cornicing and sash windows throughout. The property is well maintained and is further enhanced by a bespoke Rayburn kitchen/ breakfast room, an oriel bay window to the dining room and parquet flooring all being of particular note. Further benefits include three generously proportioned bedrooms arranged via a linear landing arrangement with complimenting en-suite facilities to the principal bedroom, range of fitted wardrobes and a separate family bathroom. There are ample parking for a range of vehicles and private formal gardens with seating areas, well stocked herbaceous and rose borders all enclosed with mature hedging, there are also a number of fruit trees and vegetable beds. The property also has off-street parking for a range of vehicles. Enjoying Grade II listed status, Victorian properties of this standing and calibre are rare market opportunities.
