- Oil fired central heating and full double glazing
- Walking distance of excellent amenities
- Superb edge of village location
- Long driveway, ample parking, detached garage and workshop
- Spacious, extended living accommodation
- EPC rating D

THE PROPERTY

Built, we understand, approximately forty years ago by highly regarded local builders, Messrs Trethewans, 'Tredore' has been in our clients ownership for almost all of this period, during which it has been extended and superbly maintained to provide what, now, is an exceptional, detached, edge of village bungalow, which enjoys exceptional outside facilities as well as a tranquil, sheltered position with views towards Constantine church.

Double glazed and centrally heated, the accommodation has been extended at the rear to provide a large, family sized, triple aspect kitchen/breakfast room, in addition to which there is a double aspect lounge/diner with glass-fronted log-burner and patio doors onto an expansive decked sun terrace, as well as into an extremely sunny conservatory on the property's south western side.

A long private driveway approach provides private access off what, already, is a quiet residential cul-de-sac, with the driveway forming a large forecourt suitable for numerous vehicles, in addition to which there is a covered car port, detached garage and additional hardstanding, to the front boundary, ideal for those with a caravan, motorhome or boat etc. Well enclosed lawned gardens extend across the front of the property where there is also a decked terrace, ideal for entertaining etc, which opens, in turn, onto a large side patio. There are neat, well tended gardens to the rear where there is secondary pedestrian access from Parc Monga, together with greenhouse, oil storage tank, utility room and gardener's WC to the rear of the garage, as well as a superb workshop - 29'11" x 11'8" (9.14m x 3.58m), with light and power connected, ideal for the handyman, hobbyists, and those requiring a studio etc.

In all, a perfect home, ideal for retirees and families alike.

THE LOCATION

Parc Monga is a quiet residential cul-de-sac on the south western outskirts of Constantine, one of the best served villages in the sought-after North Helford River Area. Within walking distance of the property is the doctors surgery, as well as excellent day-to-day amenities including two convenience stores, church, social club, public house, primary school and active community hall - The Tolmen Centre.

Nearby walks lead through picturesque countryside to Polwheveral Creek and the Helford River; boating and laying-up facilities are available nearby at Gweek, and the port of Falmouth is just seven miles distant.
