THE LOCATION

Penryn is an historic port on the south coast of Cornwall, chartered in 1236. During the 19th Century, the town was known for the export of granite, used in such buildings as the Bank of England and many of the country's lighthouses. The town is home to Penryn Campus, a large university campus occupied by two institutions – Falmouth University and the University of Exeter. Over recent years, the area has thrived due to a significant increase in student population, in turn, having a positive impact on local businesses. The scenic Helford River is a short drive away, with areas such as Falmouth, Truro and Helston within close proximity, making this attractive town a perfect place for those seeking a quieter lifestyle, while being conveniently close to the liveliness of larger towns.

MICRO LOCATION

The property is well positioned along Broad Street in central Penryn. Penryn train station is located approximately 0.7 miles away, which provides regular train services to Falmouth and Truro. There are direct and regular trains to and from London Paddington via Truro Station (journey time circa 4.5 hours). In addition, there are regular bus services running from Penryn town centre, servicing the local areas and wider Cornwall.

THE PROPERTY

Over recent months, this three storey property has undergone a comprehensive refurbishment. The apartments are all individually metered and serviced by modern gas boilers (apart from Apartment 2, which is fully electric). Accessed from the front door via the side elevation is a central hallway, which provides access to the apartments. Externally, there is a very pleasant, particularly private, and deceptively deep rear garden.
