To the side of the building, a gravelled footpath leads to a clear glazed side entrance door with steps rising into the:-

LIVING ROOM/RECEPTION

A well proportioned reception room, currently utilised as a living area with plentiful light, broad uPVC window to side elevation, and contemporary engineered oak flooring. Inset downlights, wall lights, TV aerial point, BT master telephone socket with internet point. Thermostatically controlled electric wall heater. Replacement four panel door leading to rear hallway and matching door opposite leading to the:-

FRONT HALLWAY

Panel door to airing cupboard housing unvented hot water system with tall water tank and wall-mounted electric consumer unit. Door leading to the kitchen/dining area. Continuation of engineered oak flooring, inset downlights, thermostatically controlled electric wall heater. Panel door leading into the:-

MAIN BATHROOM

Stylishly appointed with low flush WC, pedestal wash hand basin with mixer tap and tiled splashback, together with panelled bath, glazed side screen, mixer tap and mains powered shower. Tile-effect flooring, two obscure glazed windows, heated towel rail, inset downlights, extractor fan. Four panel door from hallway, leading into the:-

KITCHEN/DINER

Situated to the far end of the property, incorporating tremendous amounts of natural light via a double-leaf sliding door, allowing immediate access onto a raised deck set beyond and adjacent, clear glazed rear access door providing an alternative entry to the property via the raised decking area. Once again, beautifully appointed with a modern fitted kitchen, together with broad and deep central island. Fitted with an array of cupboards, drawers and overhead units with marble-effect work surface including composite one and a half bowl sink with drainer and mixer tap and contemporary tiled splashback. Built-in Lamona appliances to include electric oven, four ring electric hob and circular extractor system, tall and built-in fridge/freezer, together with dishwasher adjacent. Continuation of engineered oak flooring, inset downlights, wall lights. Further clear glazed access door leading onto side pathway. Slate-effect flooring, inset downlight, extractor fan, heated towel rail.

BEDROOM TWO

Again, well proportioned and another double room with tall uPVC glazed window to the side elevation with deep sill/window seat, shallow alcove suitable for tall furniture, and thermostatically controlled electric wall heater. Panel door leading to walk-in storage cupboard, hanging light.

THE EXTERIOR

RAISED DECK AND ENCLOSED 'GARDEN'

Positioned excellently for the afternoon sun and facing due south, enclosed to three sides with feather edge fencing and high walling, creating the perfect sun trap or area in which to enjoy al fresco dining, social gatherings etc. From the deck, a lower section of garden requires landscaping and prospective purchasers should note that tarpaulin has currently been set in place to cover the area for convenience. A timber side access gate leads to a gravelled access pathway which, if followed to the far side of the building, leads to a further timber garden gate opening onto the rear access lane for the property. Immediately to the left, an opening leads to the:-

ALLOCATED PARKING

Particularly useful and mainly laid to gravel, an allocated parking space exists for one vehicle only.
