THE EXTERIOR

GARAGE AND DRIVEWAY

From Fenwick Road, a driveway, mainly laid to gravel, with stone walling and timber fencing, provides space enough for two vehicles, together with garage featuring up-and-over door, double glazed window to the side elevation, and water tap. A timber garden gate from the driveway opens to the:-

FRONT GARDEN

Recently landscaped with shallow steps, set initially, rising to a gravelled pathway, leading onto the front entrance entrance. Well established, with an array of plants and bushes including pittosporum, rhododendrons, etc. together with the proximity of neighbouring trees providing a high degree of privacy and, more pleasantly, sunshine which can be enjoyed from the garden, or alternatively, the covered frontage. A pathway exists along the rear of the property, bordered by featheredge timber fencing, and to the front, a timber gate leads on to the:-

REAR COURTYARD GARDEN

Providing ample space for table and chairs, and garnering much sunlight towards the middle and end of the day, with an establish natural boundary comprising a range of plants, bushes and trees. In need of modest landscaping, the 'courtyard' area offers an external tap with trough-style sink set on exposed blockwork, and exterior courtesy lights. Steps with courtesy handrail descend to a pedestrian gate, allowing convenient access onto Fenwick Road which can be used as an alternative entrance, if desired. Painted timber door providing access to the:-

BOILER ROOM

Housing a hot water cylinder, combination boiler providing domestic hot water and heating, and electrical consumer unit. Ceiling light, exposed blockwork surround, concrete floor. Separate thermostats for towel rails, heating and hot water.
