LOCATION

Gweek is a hugely popular creekside village at the head of the Helford River, famed for its sailing waters and offering excellent access to Helston, Truro and Falmouth. The village itself offers a wonderful active community with regular events on the green and facilities which include a well stocked shop and post office, public house with restaurant as well as the Boatyard Cafe. The village hall is used for a variety of purposes to include a playgroup and amateur dramatic productions by the Gweek Players. Both Boskenwyn and Zelda offer junior schooling with secondary education available at Mullion, Helston and Falmouth. Gweek is also home to the Cornish Seal Sanctuary.
