The well proportioned and highly versatile accommodation includes a deep reception hall, lounge with bay window and real flame gas fire, dining room, sun room with doors opening directly onto the lower courtyard, comprehensively appointed kitchen with integrated appliances, fully-tiled ground-floor cloaks/wet room and large utility room.

One bedroom towards the rear is currently utilised as an office and the 'back' bedroom has a doorway providing 'independent' access to the rear courtyard garden, if required. On the top floor, there is a large double aspect fifth bedroom with two dormer windows to the front providing panoramic views over the town and harbour, to the Fal estuary and shoreline of The Roseland Peninsular beyond.

The rear courtyard gardens are two-tier and have been most attractively landscaped with raised flower/shrub beds and extensive paved terracing which enjoy a high degree of sunshine.
