THE LOCATION

Mylor is a civil parish located about five miles from Falmouth. Its largest village, Mylor Bridge, sits at the head of Mylor Creek, one of the western tidal inlets of The Carrick Roads, within an area of outstanding natural beauty. The village offers an excellent range of day-to-day amenities, including a well-regarded primary school, sub-post office, newsagent, butcher, and hairdressers. It is also served by a doctors surgery, dentist, and The Lemon Arms public house. A regular bus service runs to both Truro and Falmouth. To the east, along the creek, lies Mylor Yacht Harbour - Cornwall's most important and popular marina, providing superb facilities for dinghy, motorboat, and yachting enthusiasts. About a mile and a half away, the famous 13th-century thatched Pandora Inn rests beautifully on the banks of Restrouguet Creek, featuring a large floating pontoon for visitors to enjoy.
