THE EXTERIOR

FRONT

Accessed via highly sought-after Old Church Road, the property is set behind secure gates, opening onto a generous parking area accommodating at least four vehicles and leading directly to the garage. The frontage is enclosed by charming stone walls and framed by mature shrubs, plants and trees, offering a sense of privacy and character. A gravelled driveway leads to a paved pathway to the front door. The front garden/courtyard area is beautifully bordered by low level flowerbeds, stone walls and established hedging. Gated pathways on both sides of the property provide convenient access to the rear garden.

REAR

The rear of the property is accessed from both sides, via gated entrances. Just beyond the gate on the right-hand side, is the oil storage tank and useful area for recycling and log storage. A paved pathway leads into the rear garden, which is beautifully maintained and bordered by mature shrubs, well established plants, and low level flowerbeds. The garden itself is predominantly laid to lawn, almost entirely level, and enclosed by a low stone wall, creating a peaceful and private setting. Surrounding the property is open countryside and a select number of highly desirable neighbouring homes, adding to the sense of space and exclusivity.

Accessed from the sun/living room, snug/occasional bedroom, and ground floor bedroom, is a raised, paved terrace - perfect for al fresco dining and outdoor entertaining. To the far end, there are attractive, well stocked flowerbeds which add colour and charm throughout the seasons. The garden enjoys a sunny aspect, benefiting from beautiful evening sun. Wrapping around to the other side of the property, a continuation of paving and gravel leads to a garden shed, ideal for further storage. A secondary gate provides access back to the front of the house. External water hose connection and electric power supply.
