With its large, flexible layout, good sized garden, brick outbuilding with potential and off-street parking for 3 cars, this property could provide for a variety of lifestyles and would be ideal for buyers looking to enjoy being part of a thriving community where there are many good amenities on the doorstep to enjoy.

The exterior of this newly renovated property still reflects a picture-perfect double fronted period town house, while the inside has a more contemporary feel, with light, generous rooms having been designed with modern living in mind. The heart of this home are the spacious, light, bright main reception rooms to the front of the house and the lovely "in style" kitchen / breakfast room to the rear, with its bespoke island and high-spec appliances. These sociable spaces are ideal for families that enjoy cooking, eating and relaxing together.

There is also the bonus of a separate snug, ideal for cosy evenings in front of the TV. The long entrance hall, that forms the centre of the house, gives access to the back garden and all the main rooms on the ground floor, plus the cellar, which itself is a very useful space for families with lots of stuff, or wine enthusiasts with lots of wine! A utility cum cloakroom completes the accommodation on this floor.

The three bedrooms on the first floor are all good size doubles, two of which have contemporary en-suite shower rooms. A large family bathroom with claw foot bath and walk-through shower serves the third bedroom. The remaining room on this floor could be used for a number of different purposes including as a nursery, study, dressing room or for additional storage.

But it is the principal bedroom suite on the second floor with its spacious dimensions, separate dressing area with built-in storage, and luxury en-suite bathroom with stunning far-reaching views that really has the "wow" factor. There is a further generous double bedroom with a contemporary en-suite shower room on this floor and a room at the rear which would make a perfect study, although the amazing views would certainly be a distraction from work.

OUTSIDE At the back of the house is a most interesting brick outbuilding with brick floor, fireplace and separate newly installed WC. This useful space, which has power and water connected could serve a number of different purposes and would make the perfect hobby room or even home pub!

To the front are two grassed areas, bordered by a white painted picket style fence, with a pathway through the middle leading to the front door. A shared driveway leads round to a private parking area where there is parking and turning for three vehicles. A single gate and further double gates lead to the rear of the property where there is a patio area and a very private garden, currently divided into two parts, the latter being somewhat of a secret space, tucked away from the hustle and bustle of the world. A large timber shed with power provides plenty of storage space and potential for other uses.
