Ty Uchaf , Rhewl, LL20 7BJ

Price £539,950

A spacious four double bedroom detached cottage retaining many original features that backdates to the 19th century. Ty-Uchaf sits in established grounds from which to admire the far reaching views over the valley having AONB status (Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty). Recently built self contained wooden cabin is currently a successful holiday let which could offer alternative uses as home office etc. The accommodation briefly comprises family lounge and dining room kitchen with utility & w.c off, four double bedrooms and family bathroom. Externally there are several patio areas from which to enjoy outdoor entertaining, detached garage and ample parking. Further enclosed paddock area to front. NO CHAIN

Location

Located walking distance of the Sun Inn public house in the picturesque hamlet of Rhewl which lies only 4 miles from the bustling riverside tourist town of Llangollen. Llangollen is famous for its Eisteddfod and year round festivals and offers a range of restaurants, bars and coffee shops, some unique craft outlets and for the more adventurous it is host to a number of water sports from white water rafting to canoeing. Younger guests often enjoy the trips on horse drawn barges along the canal and rides on the local steam train. From this point the whole of the Snowdonia National Park is easily accessible as well as the commercial and industrial centres surrounding Wrexham, Chester and Oswestry.
