Description

Presented in beautiful condition is this spacious bay window fronted 3 bedroom detached family home set within good sized established gardens having a gated driveway that provides ample parking. Conveniently located for Wrexham, Chester and Mold, Delwyn has undergone a scheme of refurbishment over the years to include an electrical upgrade, new roof and replacement boiler and offers excellent living space. The accommodation has a wealth of charming features and briefly comprises a pillared entrance porch with stained glass windows, welcoming hall with staircase to 1st floor, bay window living room, bay window sitting room with wood block floor, fitted kitchen breakfast room and a rear hall. External access to a utility room and former coal shed. The 1st floor landing gives access to the 3 double bedrooms, 2 of which enjoy hillside views, and a family bathroom with separate w.c. To the outside, double gates open to the gravelled private drive with turning area, 2 garages and a private lawned area with established flower beds that continues into the sunny aspect side garden with paved pathway, lawned and patio areas for outdoor entertaining, privacy hedging and greenhouse. Viewing strongly recommended. Energy Rating - E (52)

LOCATION

The village of Cefn y Bedd lies approximately 5 miles from Wrexham and 7 miles from Mold and has the benefit of excellent road links to the major commercial centres within the region as well as a train station to allow for daily commuting. The adjoining villages offer a range of convenient shopping facilities and amenities including the highly regarded Castell Alun Secondary School at Hope. The area offers picturesque countryside with attractive walks up Hope Mountain or at Alyn Waters Country Park. The nearby Wrexham town centre offers a choice of shopping, leisure facilities and supermarkets together with a choice of public transport.

DIRECTIONS

From Wrexham town centre proceed along Mold Road passing Glyndwr University on your right. Continue across the next 2 roundabouts along the A541 for approximately 4 miles passing through the village of Gwersyllt and The Hollybush public house and restaurant. Just after the bridge, the entrance to Delwyn will be observed on the right immediately after the turning to the train station.
