A stunning period property that has been refurbished to exacting standards throughout. The light, spacious accommodation is beautifully presented and briefly comprises, two separate reception rooms, a new bespoke hand painted kitchen, two double bedrooms with a further bedroom/office and a luxuriously refitted bathroom and en-suite. Outside is a sunny enclosed rear garden, small front garden and ample unrestricted on road parking. Further attributes include, modern double glazing, a refitted heating system, rewiring and new quality floor coverings throughout. Available mid September.

Set just to the west of the A24, between Horsham and Storrington, Dial Post is a sought after village that boasts The Crown, an award winning free house Inn which over-looks the village green. The stunning Knepp Estate is also within close proximity. Horsham is approximately eight miles to the north offering a comprehensive range of shops and leisure facilities including Waitrose and John Lewis at Home. Billingshurst is approximately 7 miles to the west which, although more modest in its range of services, is a charming village community with a growing village centre.
