Enjoying superb views of the sea from the lounge and patio is this beautifully presented ground floor apartment. Forming part of an award winning development, this apartment sits at the foot of Beeston Hill and literally a stone's throw from the West Promenade and beach. The Town centre, which offers an excellent selection of shops and restaurants is just a five minute walk.

The apartment has full gas central heating and sealed unit glazing throughout and offers well-proportioned accommodation. Although it is currently a holiday property, it would be equally suitable for those seeking a permanent home by the sea.
