Buntingford, Hertfordshire, SG9 0TS
Guide price £680,000

SOUGHT AFTER LOCATION IN A POPULAR VILLAGE

'The Rayments of Pelham Brewery' was built in 1869 and is now over 150 years old. This magnificent Grade II listed building was converted between 2000 and 2003 by renowned local developers Grange Builders who carried out an award winning restoration project.

With accommodation arranged over three levels, this fabulous home offers four bedrooms and enjoys an abundance of character including high ceilings, large picture windows and an attractive fireplace in the sitting room. Outside there is a private West facing garden to the rear and to the front there is private allocated parking for two cars and well maintained communal gardens.

Furneux Pelham is a charming village surrounded by gently sloping fields. It boasts a well regarded primary school, village hall, parish church and a public house/restaurant with a very useful shop attached.

The market town of Bishop's Stortford is approximately eight miles away and has a mainline railway station with excellent commuter service to Liverpool St. Station.

Buntingford is another popular destination for shopping. It is located just under six miles to the west. Access to junction 8 of the M11 motorway is located to the east of Bishop's Stortford, approximately nine miles away.

EPC Exempt / Council Tax Band F.

Sell your house via Lednor & Company in The Pelhams and surrounding villages and we will donate £250 to Furneux Pelham School or St Mary The Virgin Church.
