Offers in the Region
Of £235,000

On the market with Crofts estate agents, early viewing is highly advised on this lovely sized and well presented two bedroom detached bungalow located a short stroll of Chichester Road and the many amenities that this highly popular area has to offer. This super home creates an ideal purchase for a variety of buyers just looking for that ready to move into property. The property has undergone some refurbishment over the past few years, with the accommodation briefly comprising entrance hallway, spacious living /dining room, inner hallway, modern and stylish dining kitchen with the dining area previously being a third bedroom and with the kitchen offering an excellent array of units with double oven and five ring gas hob. Two double bedrooms and then finally a modern and stylish shower room. The property has low maintenance gardens with the front having new garden wall, artificial grass and driveway creating useful off road parking. Gated access to the side leads to further parking which can easily accommodate two/three more cars behind the gate and then in turn leads down to what was a double detached garage but is currently used as a garage /workshop. The rear garden not only enjoys a sunny aspect throughout the day but also a great degree of privacy and is ideal for outdoor entertaining. Gas central heating and double glazing.
