Agent's Comment

We bought our 'first ever home' on the popular Poet's estate, a two bedrooomed semi with a driveway and garage. We looked at several, but always favoured this area, because it was a smart looking estate with a mixture of different styles of properties.

and within walking distance of my place of work, Swadlincote town centre and ideal for the commuter with its close proximity to the excellent road network. I loved living there and rate the area as one of the best in Swadlincote.

The property we are currently marketing is a credit to the present Owners who have lived at the property for many years, it has been well loved and that can be seen from the standard of presentation and the upgrades carried out including the splendid fitted Kitchen and the well equipped and refurbished bathroom and separate downstairs shower room.
