ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

The Coach House is a detached two bedroom home superbly located a short walk from the vibrant centre of Abergavenny on the western side of the town. Originally the coach house of neighbouring Ty Cantref, the property affords well-proportioned accommodation throughout with the ground floor comprising a 16' lounge with patio doors to the garden, a modern fitted kitchen/breakfast room and downstairs WC. The former garage has been partially converted to add a large utility room accessed from the kitchen while retaining a section to the front for storage. Upstairs there is large principal bedroom, second single bedroom and shower room. To the rear there is a charming west facing garden comprising a large terrace which is partially block paved with steps leading down to a section of lawn enjoying spectacular views across the town towards the Blorenge. Further benefits include a brand new boiler, and double glazing throughout. Offered with no onward chain.

ABOUT THE LOCATION

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Blorenge and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly, a high street comprising of recognized chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny, is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.
