ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

A superb four bedroom period home forming part of the painstaking redevelopment of the historic, Georgian, Park Hotel in the Monmouthshire village of Pandy near Abergavenny. This exceptional property offers an unparalleled level of quality and attention to detail, rarely found in the local market; where historic charm meets contemporary style.

Spanning over 2400 square feet, this spacious and thoughtfully designed property provides the ultimate in comfort and sophistication. The impressive entrance hall, with its bespoke staircase featuring metal spindles and an oak handrail, sets the tone for the elegance within. The heart of this home is the 29' kitchen/family room with three sets of French doors, creating a seamless flow between indoor and outdoor living spaces. The bespoke, handmade kitchen features a range of integrated appliances (rangemaster oven, double fridge freezer, dishwasher and wine cooler), an instant boiling water tap, granite worktops, and a central island. There is also an 18' formal lounge providing an alternative to modern open plan living and offers direct access to the front and side terrace through two sets of French doors. In addition, there is a study, complete with hand-built bookshelves, providing an ideal space for a home office, and the ground floor accommodation is completed by the practical convenience of a large utility room and downstairs WC. Luxurious finishes include designer light fittings throughout, Mandarin stone flooring in the main ground floor areas, and Little Green branded paint colours that add character to every wall. Black nickel effect sockets provide a modern, sleek touch to the property. The 15' master bedroom includes an en-suite shower room with a double sink and dressing room. A second en-suite bedroom features a shower room and walk-in wardrobe. Two further double bedrooms offer spacious and inviting accommodations for family or guests. The fabulous family bathroom, with Mandarin stone porcelain and branded sanitary ware throughout, maintains the feeling of luxury.

Outdoor amenities include driveway parking for three cars and a south-facing garden. A large terrace, accessed from the primary living areas, leads to a substantial lawn, screened by high fences for privacy. The countryside position offers lovely views of the surrounding Monmouthshire landscape. Offering unparalleled elegance and sophistication this remarkable property is more than just a home; it's a lifestyle of luxury and comfort. The best in modern living with a touch of historic charm.

The village of Pandy is situated approximately 6 miles from Abergavenny in a beautiful setting beneath the Skirrid Mountain. It is popular with ramblers and hill walkers as Offa's Dyke Path runs through the village, while the Brecon Beacons are within easy access. There is a village primary school and local shops in neighbouring Llanvihangel Crucorney. The area offers a variety of pubs and hostelrys, including the Skirrid Inn, the oldest pub in Wales. The A465, Heads of the Valleys road, travels through the village, providing easy access to Cardiff, Swansea, and West Wales (southbound) and Hereford (northbound). It also connects with the A40/A449, leading to the M4, M50, and M5 motorways. Both Hereford and Abergavenny offer mainline railway stations, providing access to the entire rail network.
