About this property

A two bedroom semi-detached house conveniently located moments from Abergavenny railway station and a short walk from the amenities of the town centre, and the riverside walks of Castle Meadow. The property affords accommodation comprising an entrance porch that opens to the 16' L-shaped lounge/diner off which is a separate fitted kitchen and conservatory. Upstairs there are two comfortable double bedrooms and a three piece bathroom. The property forms part of a small mews development with parking available on a first come first served basis at the rear. It also benefits from a low maintenance patio garden and no onward chain.

About the location

A popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Blorenges and the Sugar Loaf mountains, Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales'. It is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly, a high street comprising of recognized chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny, is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.

Directions

Take the A40, Monmouth Road, out of the Town Centre. After half a mile turn left (signposted for the Station) onto Station Road. Limetree Mews is the third right turn just before the train station
