About this property

Nestled in the picturesque village of Pandy, just five miles north of Abergavenny, this delightful semi-detached home offers a perfect blend of comfort and countryside charm. Boasting stunning views, the property features a welcoming entrance hall leading into a spacious and light-filled living room, where large windows frame the beautiful surrounding scenery. The heart of the home is the generous kitchen/diner, ideal for family gatherings and entertaining. The ground floor also includes a well-appointed bathroom, a practical rear lean-to porch, and a versatile workshop/utility space. Upstairs, the property offers three inviting bedrooms—two doubles and single. Additional benefits include oil-fired central heating and double glazing for year-round comfort. Outside, the front and rear gardens are perfect for enjoying the rural setting, offering breathtaking views of the surrounding landscape. This charming home presents an excellent opportunity to embrace village life while remaining within easy reach of Abergavenny's amenities.

The village of Pandy is situated approximately 6 miles from Abergavenny in a beautiful setting beneath the Skirrid Mountain. It is a popular with ramblers and hill walkers as Offa's Dyke Path runs through the village whilst the Brecon Beacons are within easy access. There is a village primary school and local shops in neighbouring Llanvihangel Crucorney. The area offers a variety of pubs and hostelrys including the Skirrid Inn - reputedly the oldest pub in Wales. The A465, Heads of the Valleys road travels through the village giving easy access to Merthyr Tydfil, Cardiff, Swansea and West Wales (southbound) and Hereford (northbound). It also connects with the A40/A449 leading to the M4, M50 & M5 motorways. Both Hereford and Abergavenny offer mainline railway stations providing access to the entire rail network. For further information on school catchment areas and community provisions go to www.monmouthshire.gov.uk or call 01633 644488.

Directions
