ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Tucked below the road with stunning south-facing countryside views, this charming detached cottage has been beautifully modernized while retaining its character and charm. Perfect for those seeking a unique and inviting home, it offers generous gardens and a peaceful setting. Positioned at the end of its own driveway, the cottage boasts surprisingly spacious grounds, providing plenty of versatility. The interior features a cozy yet open living and dining area with a wood-burning stove, a stylish modern kitchen with granite countertops, integrated appliances, and a characterful former bread oven. A hallway leads to a WC, utility space, and shower room, while stairs take you to the first floor, where you'll find two double bedrooms, a single bedroom, and a well-appointed en-suite with a walk-in shower and an impressive walk-in wardrobe. Outside, the terraced gardens to the rear and side offer exciting potential for landscaping, with space for vibrant borders and peaceful seating areas. At the front, a level enclosed garden with a patio, natural stone walls, and mature borders creates the perfect spot to relax and take in the surroundings. The property also benefits from ample parking, a handy stone-built shed, and a newly built wooden summer house at the top of the drive—ideal for a home office. Additionally, full planning permission has been granted to extend the cottage, enhancing the third bedroom and bathroom. Planning reference: 22/20980/FUL.

ABOUT THE LOCATION

The hamlet of Llanwenarth is nestled on the lower slopes of the Sugarloaf mountain in the spectacular surroundings of the Brecon Beacons National Park, with views of the Bloreng dominating the skyline. Abergavenny is 2.8 miles away and provides a wide range of amenities. These include major supermarkets, independent retailers, the regular weekly market and wealth of leisure and cultural options. There are also a number of primary schools, a secondary school and Nevill Hall Hospital. Crickhowell is two miles to the west. Voted UK Best High Street 2018, Crickhowell offers a vibrant alternative with a range of retailers, pubs and restaurants to enjoy. Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The Railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further twenty five minutes away.

DIRECTIONS

From our office on Cross Street (NP7 5EU), follow Monk Street north to the traffic lights. Turn left into Park Road and continue for approximately 0.5 miles to the roundabout. Take the 2nd exit and continue on the A40 for 2.7 miles. As the Keith Price Subaru Garage comes into the view the entrance to Mardy Cottage is the second driveway on the left hand side.
