About this property

Built in 2012 by Linden Homes a four bedroom detached house property enjoying a generous plot adjacent to the River Gavenny within a small attractive cul-de-sac development. This family home affords generous accommodation throughout and is set behind a pretty frontage with driveway leading to the integral garage. The ground floor comprises a welcoming entrance hall with downstairs cloakroom, 23' lounge/diner with French doors to the rear raised deck, stylish fully integrated kitchen, and internal access to the single garage. On the first floor the master suite boasts both a dressing room and luxury en-suite shower room. In addition there are two further double bedrooms and a family bathroom. The second floor is home to an exceptionally spacious landing area which in turn leads to a 15ft double bedroom with en-suite shower room. Outside the large enclosed rear garden is chiefly laid to lawn. This is a superb opportunity for those purchasers seeking the trappings of semi-rural living, with the benefits of a contemporary modern home harnessed with the convenience of being located just two miles from the centre of one of Monmouthshire's most popular and bustling market towns.

Llantilio Pertholey is a picturesque hamlet on the northern fringe of Abergavenny, a popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with a skyline dominated by the Blorenges and the Sugarloaf mountains. Known as the 'Gateway to Wales', Abergavenny is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, weekly retail and farmers markets, a high street comprising of recognized chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Neville Hall Hospital. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The Railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away. Furthermore there is a large bus station with an extensive range of routes to neighbouring towns and villages and as far afield as Cardiff.
