About this property

Set on a generous 0.28-acre hillside plot with beautiful views of the surrounding countryside, this charming 3/4 bedroom detached home blends character and space, having been thoughtfully extended from its origins as a traditional stone cottage. The ground floor features a large kitchen with separate utility room, a spacious living and dining area with period charm including a striking stone fireplace and log-burning stove, and an additional reception room that offers flexible use as a fourth bedroom, study, or snug. Upstairs, there are three bedrooms—two doubles (one with a dressing area and en-suite shower room) and a single with a Velux window - alongside a large family bathroom. Outside, the property enjoys wraparound gardens mainly laid to lawn, ample driveway parking, and a detached garage, making it an ideal family home in a peaceful rural setting.

About the location

Coalbrookvale is nestled in the South Wales Valleys, between the towns of Blaina and Brynmawr. Just a short distance from Brynmawr town centre, residents enjoy convenient access to local shops, supermarkets, and essential amenities. The area is well-served by schools and offers a variety of scenic walking trails, including the picturesque Beaufort Ponds. For commuters, Coalbrookvale benefits from excellent road links to the M4 and A465 (Heads of the Valleys Road). Additionally, a direct rail connection to Cardiff is available from the nearby Ebbw Vale station, making it an ideal location for both local living and city access.
