About this property

A truly distinctive three-bedroom detached cottage in a peaceful location above the River Gavenny, set within an impressive plot of approximately 0.2 acres. Formerly a general store, the property is accessed from the road at first-floor level into a spacious entrance hall, currently used as a home office. This leads to a landing with three bedrooms and a family bathroom. Stairs lead down to a generous 26-foot living room that enjoys beautiful woodland views rich with wildlife. The ground floor also includes a kitchen and a separate shower room. From the kitchen, doors open to a private rear garden - a tranquil retreat that remains within walking distance of the town centre. The garden features a series of terraced levels that lead down to the riverbank, along with a greenhouse, timber shed, and a summerhouse with decking overlooking the grounds. Both the electrics and central heating system were upgraded approximately four years ago.

Abergavenny is a popular market town nestled amidst the Seven Beacons with its skyline dominated by the Bloreng and the Sugar Loaf mountains. Known as the 'Gateway to Wales' it is situated twelve miles from the English border and just south of the Black Mountains in the Brecon Beacons National Park. Steeped in history, Abergavenny was originally a Roman Fort then a medieval walled town. It is now a market town with arguably more life than nearby Usk and Monmouth. It offers a wide range of amenities with major supermarkets, popular bi-weekly market, a high street comprising of recognised chains and local department stores, leisure centre, a number of churches and Nevill Hall Hospital. Abergavenny is world renowned for its Food Festival which brings the UK's best chefs and culinary experts to the town every September. The town also offers a rich and vibrant range of cultural options including the Borough Theatre which offers an all year round programme of professional and amateur events, and the annual Abergavenny Writing Festival. Its location means that Abergavenny acts as the major transport hub for the area. The railway station allows easy access to anywhere on the rail network. The A465, Heads of the Valleys Road is one mile out of town with the M50 / M4 a further 25 minutes away.
