ABOUT THIS PROPERTY

Tucked away in a secluded setting on the edge of the Monmouthshire village of Gilwern, near Abergavenny, The Nook is a charming and distinctive property overlooking the River Clydach. The accommodation is well proportioned and begins with a central entrance hall. To the left lies the characterful kitchen and dining room, the oldest part of the house, featuring a vaulted ceiling, exposed stone walls, and a log-burning stove. From here, you access the second bedroom, which also boasts vaulted ceilings, stone walls, and dual-aspect windows to the side and rear. To the right of the entrance hall, the exceptionally light living room opens up with floor-to-ceiling windows and another log-burning stove. At the rear of the cottage are the main bedroom, with French doors leading directly to the garden, and the family bathroom. Outside, the property is surrounded by magnificent, mature gardens. A timber-decked terrace adjoins the cottage and overlooks a tranquil pond, with steps leading up to a spacious detached studio equipped with light, power, and water. To the east, lawns, shrubs, and trees frame glorious views across the gorge. Beyond, extensive woodland grounds stretch south to the River Clydach, where rock pools and a spectacular waterfall can be found. The cottage has also been recently updated with high-spec double-glazed uPVC windows and doors, finished with flush black exteriors and white cottage-style interiors complemented by period ironwork. Set within the Bannau Brycheiniog National Park and just a short walk from the Monmouthshire and Brecon Canal, The Nook is a truly unique home in a superb and idyllic location. Please note, there is no vehicular access to the property; it is reached by a footpath approximately 50 metres from Maes Y Gwartha Road, with on-road parking available at the top of the path.

Gilwern is a beautiful and tranquil village in South East Wales with views of the Brecon Beacons and The Sugar Loaf mountains with walks or boating on the Monmouthshire and Brecon Canal. Whilst maintaining the benefits of a small village community, Gilwern is well served with amenities boasting a number of small shops, a post office, village hall, library, garage, two pubs and several places of worship. Whilst offering an exceptionally rural aspect, Gilwern still benefits from easy access to the popular and bustling market town of Abergavenny which along with its railway station is 4 miles away. Drivers can easily access the Heads of the Valleys Road within minutes and the M4 corridor is 30 minutes away. Gilwern is further serviced by the X4 (Abergavenny / Cardiff) and No. 3 (Abergavenny / Brynmawr) bus routes. For further information on school catchment areas and community provisions go to www.monmouthshire.gov.uk or call 01633 644488.

DIRECTIONS

From Abergavenny take the A465 westbound towards Merthyr Tydfil. After approximately 2 miles take the third exit at the roundabout onto the (A4077) Abergavenny Road, signposted to Gilwern and continue for approximately 0.9 miles into the village then turn right immediately after the Beaufort Arms and follow (A4077) Crickhowell Road for approximately 400 metres then turn left into Church Road. Proceed up the hill for 300 metres before taking the 3rd left onto Maes-Y-Gwartha Road, continue for approximately 0.4 miles. There is a post box on the wall of a property on the left signed 'Nook Cottage', take the footpath down which leads to the property after approximately 50 metres.
