Pott Row

EMBRACE NORFOLK'S CHARM IN A TRANQUIL VILLAGE

If you're looking for somewhere to settle down and enjoy the Norfolk way of life, then the quaint, rural village of Pott Row is certainly a place to consider.

Pott Row is a growing village that merges with its neighboring village, Grimston, and has a rich history of pottery production dating back centuries. It is home to the traditional Elsegood family butchers, located on Cliffe en Howe Road, which locally sources its meats. The Oak and Pine Parlour specialises in bespoke handcrafted furniture, while the village chapel, likely dating back to the 19th century, serves as a community hub for events like yoga, toddler mornings, and annual Christmas tree charity displays. The village hall also hosts a variety of activities.

The adjoining village of Grimston offers amenities such as the Grimston Medical Centre, a shop with a post office and a local pub, The Old Bell. For those looking to get creative, there's also the Crafty Corner Shop, which offers workshops and classes, and Norfolk Creative Arts, an art school for a variety of levels, is located opposite the church and hosts exhibitions throughout the year.

The Grade I Listed Church of St Botolph has late Saxon / early Norman origins and was largely extended in the 14th and 15th centuries and hosts regular services throughout the year.

The nearby historic market town of King's Lynn is 8 miles away with a plethora of shops, entertainment activities and eateries.

Tranquil rural living, with the convenience of a nearby bustling town with excellent travel links, Pott Row is a wonderful place to call home.
