Occupying a distinguished position in the heart of this much-loved Norfolk village, Manor Farm House is a truly special home - one that tells a story of centuries past while offering all the comfort and character of a remarkable country residence today.

Once part of the original Manor House, this side now beautifully combines what was once a charming cottage with the adjoining barns that historically served the farm. The result is a home of genuine presence and individuality - one that perfectly balances the rustic warmth of a traditional farmhouse with the impressive scale and craftsmanship of a barn conversion.

Step inside and you'll immediately sense the personality of the place. The barn end opens into a striking entrance hall with vaulted ceilings, exposed beams, and a handsome dual-sided fireplace that also warms the inviting sitting room beyond - the perfect space for relaxed evenings by the fire. Adjacent lies the dining room, grand in proportion and rich with period detail, including exposed carrstone walls, heavy timbers, and wide windows that flood the room with natural light.

At the cottage end, the kitchen and breakfast room form the focal point of daily life - a wonderfully welcoming space fitted with solid wood cabinetry and generous enough for a large farmhouse table where family and friends can gather. Beyond, a snug, pantry, and useful utility area ensure that every practical need is met while retaining a sense of homely comfort.

A separate suite of rooms - including a workshop, office, store room, utility, and WC - offers immense flexibility. These could be developed into a self-contained annexe (subject to the relevant planning permissions), a superb hobby or games area, or simply incorporated into the main accommodation to create an even more substantial home.

This is a lovely, characterful property in a great location, especially convenient for accessing King's Lynn and Sandringham.

The first floor continues to delight. The principal bedroom enjoys its own en suite shower room, while two further bedrooms share a generous family bathroom complete with a roll-top bath and separate shower.

“I would describe my home as comfortable, happy and well-located.”

A second staircase leads to an additional mezzanine bedroom or study area, offering a tucked-away space ideal for guests or quiet reflection.

Outside, the garden provides a private and picturesque retreat - a beautifully kept haven that perfectly complements the rural lifestyle, offering space to entertain, unwind, and enjoy the seasons.

Life here is about balance - between past and present, countryside charm and contemporary comfort. With the glorious open spaces of the Woottons' green parks, the Royal Sandringham Estate, and the unspoilt North Norfolk coastline all within easy reach, Manor Farm House offers the very best of village and country living in one remarkable home.

Moving here gave us more of a sense of community and allowed us to have separate living spaces while sharing a kitchen.
