

Whitecroft House 14 Whitecroft, Seascale, CA20 1AY

£475,000

Occupying this prime position within the Lake District National Park since 1828, originally a Bungalow... Whitecroft House was built up and extended in 1859 - creating what we see today. This stunning, period property has certainly kept its charm and many of its original features over the years and I'm sure, has a story or two to tell.

The current owners have upgraded this property beautifully whilst in keeping with its history. If it's a versatile family home your looking for, then look no further - there isn't a box this property does not tick! Benefiting from ample space both inside and out creating the perfect home for all the family to enjoy. Location is key and this beautiful home enjoys views across to the Wasdale Fells, Scafell Range and Wastwater Screes whilst only 5 minutes from the nearest beach and to the Wasdale Valley.

With local schools, shops and services right on your doorstep - make the move to one of the most picturesque villages the Lake District has to offer. Call us today on 01946 693931 to arrange your viewing.
