Ty Isa Bodelwyddan Road, Rhyl, LL18 5UH

- Large Family home/Small Holding
- Income potential from self-contained properties
- Rural location with excellent transport links
- 3.20 acres of Land
- Substantial range of Outbuildings
- Perfect for Equestrian use

Viewing Recommended

Ty Isa comprises of a substantial former farmhouse, numerous traditional outbuildings and land extending to 3.20 acres. This is a property packed with potential, as a large family home or to be separated into 3 dwellings.

A great location situated on Bodelwyddan road being equidistant from the villages of Bodelwyddan and Rhuddlan. The property offers a rural location and outlook however benefits from excellent access to the A55 expressway, and the larger town/city of St Asaph and Abergelle.

AGENTS REMARKS

This property is packed with potential, in its current form has been split into three very generous self-contained units which would lend themselves to providing an excellent income stream, or alternatively useful to accommodate other family members. Equally, the property could simply be brought back to one making for a very sizable dwelling. The layout and sizes of the rooms are very generous, providing a most versatile property, but very much useable in its current form.

The property is modernised to a good standard and benefit from UPVC double glazing and modern central heating systems.

Approached via a private drive directly off Bodelwyddan road and offers parking for numerous of vehicles. A traditional stockyard off provides access to the main traditional, brick built building being two storey and comprising of various store rooms and former shipon. A further sizable building fronts the roadside and comprises of stores and a charthouse. In addition, a separate garage, pony stables and piggery front the property, all having access from the central yard. The buildings are in good order and lend themselves to a multitude of uses.

The land is separated into 3 enclosures, (see plan) lying to both sides of the farmhouse and accessed from the yard. The three enclosures are laid to pasture and are well fenced and level.

Ty Isa offers huge scope for a number of uses and should be of interest to those particularly with small holding or equestrian interests. Viewing is highly recommended.
