Tan Y Ffos, a period Welsh long cottage steeped in history, a dwelling house of early extraction and a property of great charm and character. A property which offers versatility of use, presently providing a principal dwelling house with excellent equestrian facilities and set within grassed gardens with mature trees and shrubs.

All in all, a somewhat unique property occupying a delightful, private and secluded position, close to the village of Llangernyw and within easy travelling distance of the market towns of Llanrwst and Abergele, both offering all amenities for modern living. The village of Llangernyw itself offers good recreational and retail facilities to include village shop, Post Office, Public House and primary school.

A property ideal for purely residential purposes which would have much attraction within the equestrian field and smallholders alike. The property enjoys much privacy and offers a tranquil setting surrounded by magnificent and totally unspoiled countryside.

In its entirety, a thoroughly recommended property which should be viewed and given careful consideration.
