This spacious two double bedroom apartment boasts a huge private garden, a long lease and is sold without any onward chain - it must be viewed!

Situated on the first floor, the light and bright accommodation comprises a welcoming hallway, spacious lounge, two double bedrooms, a kitchen/breakfast room (which has plenty of storage, a walk in pantry and room for a table and chairs) and a family bathroom. The rooms further benefit from gas central heating and modern double glazed windows. Outside, there is a private garden measuring in excess of 55ft, perfect for relaxing and entertaining.

Well located, Carville Crescent is convenient for road and rail with South Ealing tube station (Piccadilly Line) and Brentford mainline station into Waterloo both less than a mile away. The A4/M4 road links are within easy reach as are bus links to the surrounding areas. Contact Rolfe East to arrange your appointment to view.
