An Extended Victorian House Situated in the Heart of Henfield Close to Country Walks and the High Street and Benefits from a Private Driveway.

Situation

Henfield village offers local amenities including shopping facilities, village hall, library, health centre, churches, primary school and sports centre. A bus service passes through the village to the town centres of Horsham and Brighton offering more comprehensive shopping and leisure facilities. The nearest mainline stations are at Hassocks, Burgess Hill, Horsham, Haywards Heath and Shoreham-by-Sea. Crawley, Gatwick Airport and London are accessible via the A23/M23.

Description

An attractive character house built in approximately 1870, which has been extended to provide deceptively spacious accommodation. The accommodation comprises entrance, entrance hall leading to the large kitchen/breakfast room with bi-fold doors leading onto the south facing rear garden. A large lounge/dining room with bay window overlooking the front garden and access to the study with door leading to the garden and downstairs cloakroom.

Stairs from the hallway lead to the first floor to bedroom two and three and large family bathroom with both bath and shower. Stairs lead to the large master bedroom.

On the lower ground floor the cellar has power points, window and plumbing for a washing machine and space for a tumble dryer.

Front garden with raised bed and private driveway. South facing rear garden with a large bricked patio and raised brick flower borders. There is a large brick studio/workshop under a slate roof which can be accessed from the rear garden.

The property further benefits from gas central heating and double glazing.
